Mark Gordon is a founding partner at Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP.

Nationally recognized as a litigator, conversant, experienced and successful on both sides of catastrophic loss litigation, Mr. Gordon has routinely been identified as one of the top 50 lawyers in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Gordon is recognized as a national figure in providing litigation and risk management services spanning from injured individuals to multi-national corporations. With this background, he has consulted with insurers, policyholders and government agencies in the assessment of risk exposures.

Mr. Gordon has participated in the formation of a number of captives and has served on the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee for several captives. His efforts have resulted in significant reduction in insurance premium and funding requirements for his transportation, manufacturing and construction clients.

Operating at the intersection of corporate finance, insurance products and tort claims, Mr. Gordon has earned the confidence of c-suite executives, counsels general, risk managers and referring attorneys.

Mr. Gordon has been named to the Pennsylvania Super Lawyers list for his work in Business Litigation; he has been named as a BTI Client Service All-Star, afforded to less than 200 lawyers in the United States who have provided superior client service to Fortune 1000 companies. Mr. Gordon has been rated among The Best Lawyers in America® for over 30 years. He has been selected by the American Registry as a Top Attorney in Pennsylvania, and routinely named by ALM as one of the top-tiered transportation lawyers in the United States. He was also named a 2023 Top Rated Litigator by ALM Media and Martindale-Hubbell.

The subjects of lectures provided nationally and internationally by Mr. Gordon include the benefit of post-loss risk management, the benefit of homogenous group captives, litigation controls and other risk management tools that have effectively reduced the cost of risk. He has published on the financial benefits of litigation oversight, the impact of fraud, fraud prevention, and collateral disputes between insurers, excess insurers and policyholders.

Mr. Gordon has served as Chair of Risk Control for two major captives and has served on the Board of Directors for several Best in Class national and regional motor carriers.

Mr. Gordon has successfully represented the insurance industry before the Supreme Court of the United States.

He has served as an expert witness for various state Rating Bureaus to address casualty risk, insurance bad-faith, and collateral retention issues. Recognized for his capability in insurance bad-faith claims, Mr. Gordon has been appointed as a Master by various federal courts dealing with insurance bad-faith claims.

Mr. Gordon's civic activities included service as a voluntary executive for the American Cancer Society, and service on the Pennsylvania Supreme Court Disciplinary Board.
