JOSHUA D. HILL is a partner in the Philadelphia office of Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP. He is a member of the Government Enforcement, Compliance, & White Collar Litigation and the Qui Tam & False Claims Act Practice Groups.

Mr. Hill focuses his practice on complex civil litigation, government investigations, and white collar criminal defense matters and parallel civil actions. He regularly represents entities and individuals in responding to subpoenas issued by state and federal grand juries. He handles cases involving health care fraud, securities fraud, tax fraud, export violations, pharmaceutical marketing fraud, municipal corruption, defense procurement fraud, and public finance fraud.

Additionally, Mr. Hill counsels clients in a wide range of industries concerning export controls, treaty compliance and international trade regulations enforced by the Office of Foreign Asset Controls and the Bureau of Industry and Security.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Hill was a member at a national law firm where he focused his practice on complex civil litigation, and government investigations and white collar criminal defense matters.

Mr. Hill spent four years as a public defender with the Defender Association of Philadelphia. He also previously served as a law clerk to the Honorable Mark Bernstein (ret.) of the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas.

Mr. Hill received his J.D. from The Dickinson School of Law of The Pennsylvania State University and his B.A. from The Pennsylvania State University.
