JOHN A. SCHWAB is a Partner at Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP. Mr. Schwab draws on his experience as a Marine Corps Officer and on his over 16 years of experience as a trial attorney when representing individuals and companies facing government investigations. He serves as Co-Chair of both the Government Enforcement, Compliance, and White Collar Litigation Practice Group and the Cyber Liability & Technology Law Practice Group. He is also a member of the firm's Litigation and Qui Tam/False Claims Act Practice Groups.

Mr. Schwab is an experienced litigator in the areas of commercial litigation, white collar criminal defense, government investigations, corporate internal investigations and compliance, and intellectual property litigation. He represents corporate and individual clients in a wide range of civil and criminal cases, including regulatory and enforcement matters investigated by the United States of America, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and numerous federal and state agencies. Many of the cases involve alleged violations of federal and state laws, including money laundering, bank and lender fraud, internal revenue fraud and tax evasion, procurement and contracting fraud, environmental, mortgage fraud, trade secret theft, health care fraud, DBE fraud, public corruption, mail and wire fraud, and conspiracy.

His civil practice extends to matters including commercial disputes, shareholder actions, corporate waste and breaches of fiduciary duty, intellectual property and trade secrets, employment, False Claims Act (qui tam), and other complex commercial litigation. Mr. Schwab's litigation practice includes an emphasis on electronic discovery and the impact of technology in civil and white collar criminal cases.

Representative civil matters:

Mr. Schwab earned substantial litigation and trial experience, serving in the U.S. Marine Corps as the Chief Trial Attorney at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. As chief trial counsel, Mr. Schwab supervised six trial attorneys and defended the office's most complex cases including fact-gathering, writing and arguing motions, witness preparation, and trial. During his tenure with the U.S. Marine Corps, Mr. Schwab served as trial counsel for 10 jury trials to verdict and more than 20 bench trials. A large portion of Mr. Schwab's military practice also involved representation of Marines and Sailors at employment termination hearings, termed "boards of inquiry" for officers and "administrative separation boards" for enlisted members. He handled approximately twenty of these hearings, which involved: voir dire of the hearing members; opening statements; challenging the United States' evidence, including cross-examination of witnesses; presentation of the Marine's or Sailor's evidence, including witnesses; and closing arguments.

In 2007, Mr. Schwab served as the Battalion Judge Advocate in Fallujah, Iraq for 2nd Battalion, 6th Marines, Regimental Combat Team 6 for the U.S. Marine Corps. As the sole legal counsel for the battalion, he advised commanders and provided training on domestic and international law as well as internal investigations, fiscal law, intelligence reports, criminal justice and other legal compliance matters. He had direct oversight over all of the unit's internal investigations which encompassed a wide range of subjects, including fraud, property loss, and employment disputes.

Since 2008, Mr. Schwab has served as a faculty member of the National Trial Advocacy College at the University of Virginia School of Law, which is one of the nation's premier trial advocacy programs for practicing lawyers. He also serves as a member of the Editorial Board for the Journal of Law and Public Policy for Grove City College which published his article on Honest Services Fraud in its Inaugural Edition in 2010. Mr. Schwab also performed an internship with the Honorable Robert J. Cindrich on the U.S. District Court in the Western District of Pennsylvania in 2002.

Mr. Schwab was selected as a future leader of Pennsylvania's legal community by The Legal Intelligencer as a Lawyer on the Fast Track for 2011. He has also been named a Pennsylvania Super Lawyers Rising Star for 2013, 2014, 2015, and 2016 in the area of White Collar Criminal Defense.

Mr. Schwab is a member of the American Bar Association, Allegheny County Bar Association, and National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. He is an active member of the Criminal Justice Section of the American Bar Association and the Federal Court Criminal Practice Subcommittee and the Third Circuit Review Program Committee of the Allegheny County Bar Association. He also serves on the Local Rules Advisory Committee for the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania, including the eDiscovery and criminal subcommittees.
