JONATHAN M. FINGERET is a Partner at Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP and he is a member of the firm's Business & Corporate practice group.

Mr. Fingeret is a hands-on, results-oriented attorney with extensive experience in both law firm and in-house settings. For over 20 years, Mr. Fingeret has represented and advised private and public companies on a wide array of business transactions and situations, including formations and capital raises, management restructurings, strategic transactions, and complex contract negotiations. He provides clients with practical and creative advice and solutions to allow them to effectively accomplish their business objectives.

His practice is centered around the following areas:

- strategic advice and risk assessment;
- limited liability company/partnership structuring and formations;
- securities disclosures, offerings, and regulatory compliance, including private placements and seed capital investments;
- private equity and joint venture investments;
- start-up business counseling;
- mergers and acquisitions;
- contract negotiation and drafting;
- shareholder/member interactions;
- corporate governance matters;
- commercial and capital market transactions;
- employment law;
- dispute resolution; and
- general business issues.

Mr. Fingeret also acts as outside general counsel to several businesses, providing day to day advice and service on a range of legal issues.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Fingeret served as Senior Vice President and General Counsel of an international industrial services and raw materials trading company with operations across five continents. His experience also includes over ten years of a multi-faceted corporate transactional practice with leading national and regional law firms and founding Fingeret General Counsel Services, where he provided business focused legal services to start-ups, small businesses, and business owners.

Mr. Fingeret earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan and his law degree, cum laude, from Georgetown University. He is licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania and Colorado.
