LEE VAN EGMOND is a Partner at Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP. She is a member of the firm's Business & Corporate Practice Group.

Ms. van Egmond has a broad range of experience in advising clients on corporate and finance matters, contract negotiations, licensing, and strategic transactions. She has experience in the manufacturing, technology, entertainment, banking and investment, retail, hotel, restaurant, and life science industries – both in day-to-day counseling and transactional matters.

For over two decades Ms. van Egmond has advised clients on mergers, acquisitions and divestitures for both public and privately-held corporations. She routinely represents private equity and venture capital funds regarding investments, recapitalizations, corporate governance and exit, and other strategic transactions. In addition, she acts as outside general counsel to several middle market companies based in Pittsburgh – providing legal advice in all stages of a corporation's growth, including:

- corporate governance,
- capital raising,
- corporate finance matters,
- joint ventures,
- partnership disputes, and
- exit strategies.

Her day-to-day work includes counseling companies with respect to their general corporate matters, preparing and negotiating commercial and strategic commercial arrangements, and dispute resolution.

Ms. van Egmond received her B.S. in Business Administration and her M.A. in English Literature from West Virginia University. She earned her J.D. from West Virginia University College of Law, where she was a member of the Order of the Coif and the West Virginia Law Review.
