MEGAN E. YOUNG is an associate at Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP. She is a member of the Employment & Labor Practice Group.

Prior to joining Pietragallo, Ms. Young completed an externship in the City of Philadelphia's Law Department where she handled a multitude of aspects of the litigation process including initial responsive pleadings, written discovery, depositions, pre-trial motions, municipal court, and arbitration hearings. She also gained significant experience through her time at a public healthcare technology company where she concentrated her work on employment and commercial matters.

Ms. Young also has previous experience working on cases involving EEOC charges, SEC practices, pharmacy regulations, attorney malpractice, tort actions, antitrust law, and data privacy law.

A cum laude graduate of Temple University Beasley School of Law, Ms. Young was a member of the Temple Law Review, where she served as Research and Staff Editor. While at Temple University, she received a Distinguished Class Performance in Trial Advocacy and Community Lawyering Clinic. She also served as Treasurer of the Intellectual Property Law Society and as Secretary for the Health Law Society. Ms. Young earned her Bachelor of Arts in Biology from Wake Forest University.
