MADISON M. WILLIAMS is an associate at Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP and a member of the firm's Family Law Practice Group.

Ms. Williams represents clients in a variety of family law matters. Before joining the firm, she served as an Assistant County Solicitor with the Allegheny County Law Department, where she represented the Office of Children, Youth and Families in dependency proceedings. Her experience advocating in sensitive child welfare matters provides her with a strong foundation in litigation, courtroom advocacy, and navigating complex family-related legal issues.

During law school, Ms. Williams interned for the Erie County Court of Common Pleas under the Honorable Stephanie Domitrovich (Ret.) and worked as a law clerk for a regional law firm, where she gained experience across a broad range of legal matters.

Ms. Williams earned her J.D. from the Thomas R. Kline School of Law of Duquesne University, where she served as Treasurer of the Student Bar Association. She received her B.A. in Legal Studies, cum laude, from Gannon University.
