ALYSSA M. DEDOLA is an associate in the Product Liability Practice Group at Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP.

Ms. Dedola defends manufacturers in product liability litigation in state and federal courts throughout the country. She handles cases spanning a variety of industries including pharmaceuticals, automobiles, powersports equipment, and machine parts, and has experience in federal multidistrict litigation and state mass-tort programs. With such wide-ranging experience, Ms. Dedola is adept at managing the complex and technical issues that arise in high stakes product liability cases.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Dedola was an associate at a national law firm, where she focused her practice on civil litigation, with an emphasis on medical malpractice and general liability matters. She represented large healthcare systems, hospitals, physicians, and insurance companies in complex litigation.

She has been recognized on the Pennsylvania Super Lawyers Rising Stars list.

Ms. Dedola earned her J.D. from the Thomas R. Kline School of Law of Duquesne University, where she served as President of the Appellate Moot Court Team and received the Best Brief Award in the National Appellate Advocacy Competition. She also served as Business Manager of the Duquesne Law Review and Vice President of the Women's Law Association. She was a recipient of the Dean's Scholarship and an Academic Scholarship.

Ms. Dedola earned her undergraduate degree, summa cum laude, in English from Duquesne University.
