ADAM J. GARRET is a senior associate at Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP. He is a member in the firms Family Law Practice Group and Estate & Trust Litigation Practice Group.

Mr. Garret assists his clients with all aspects of family law including divorce, equitable distribution, support, custody, and protection from abuse. Mr. Garret's practice also includes estate planning and administration services and estate litigation. He prides himself on his prompt and consistent communication with his clients so they remain updated on the status of their case every step of the way. He is committed to making sure his clients understand the legal process and the effects it will have on their families and financial futures. Mr. Garret is a problem solver with an eye towards cost effectiveness. He strives for compromise and settlement, when possible, but is not afraid to zealously advocate for his clients in court when necessary.

Mr. Garret is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the Allegheny County Bar Association. He was selected by the Allegheny County Bar Association as part of the Young Lawyers Division Bar Leadership Initiative Class of 2023-2024. He was subsequently elected as a Counsel Member of Family Law Section and as a Counsel Member of the Young Lawyers Division.

He is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh School of Law where he competed on the traveling Mock Trial Team and was the winner of the Murray S. Love. Mock Trial Competition. While in law school, Mr. Garret served as a certified legal intern for Neighborhood Legal Services and the Family Law Clinic. He also served as the Managing Editor of the Journal of Technology Law and Policy. He received his undergraduate degree from American University.

A Pittsburgh native, Mr. Garret returned to the city after college in Washington, D.C. In his spare time, Mr. Garret enjoys hiking, spending time with friends, and finding new places to eat around Pittsburgh.
