HANNAH M. FRANKE is an associate at Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP and a member of the Employment & Labor Practice Group. She focuses her practice on advising and representing employers in a broad range of labor and employment matters arising under both state and federal law.

Ms. Franke has significant experience defending against employment discrimination, harassment, and retaliation claims under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), and their state-law counterparts. She regularly assists employers in responding to and navigating investigations conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission (PHRC).

Prior to joining Pietragallo, Ms. Franke practiced at a regional law firm and served as an Assistant Prosecutor with the Camden County Prosecutor's Office. She also clerked for the Honorable Faustino J. Fernandez-Vina (Ret.), Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

Ms. Franke earned her J.D. from Rutgers University School of Law, where she served as Senior Articles Editor of the Rutgers University Law Review. She received her undergraduate degree in English, cum laude, from Rutgers University.
