PEYTON NORTON is an associate at Pietragallo Gordon Alfano Bosick & Raspanti, LLP and a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation Practice Group.

Ms. Norton previously served as a law clerk at Pietragallo, where she developed a foundation in commercial litigation through legal research, case preparation, and involvement in a variety of litigation matters. She also served as a legal intern with the Westmoreland County Public Defender's Office, where she assisted with pretrial motion practice, discovery review, and legal research.

Ms. Norton earned her J.D. from the Thomas R. Kline School of Law of Duquesne University, cum laude, where she competed nationally in the Trial Advocacy Program. She also served as student manager of the Family Law Clinic. Ms. Norton was the recipient of many awards and scholarships, including the Shalom Moot Court Award, the Justice Louis L. Manderino Honor Society Award, and the Outstanding Clinic Student Award. She earned her undergraduate degree in Criminology, Law, and Society from Saint Vincent College, summa cum laude, where she served as Captain of the Mock Trial Team and President of the Pre-Law Society.
